

Talking About Tempest...

"At The Philadelphia Folk Festival, Tempest brought down the house with its mad, high-energy mix of Scottish, Irish and Scandinavian traditions filtered through driving rock and roll. Here's a band to convince your oh-so-bored adolescent kids that folk isn't so geeky after all."

THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER

"Tempest rocks, all right, but its forte is folkrock with a decidedly Celtic accent, drawing on traditions stretching back hundreds of years."

CHICAGO TRIBUNE

"Be prepared to stomp your feet, maybe even break into an impromptu jig, 'cause these guys are brash, bawdy, and brilliant."

BAM MAGAZINE

"Tempest has one of the most unique sounds around, a sound that bridges two continents, one ocean and about a millennium of music history – a sound that has earned Tempest a loyal following that packs houses coast to coast."

GOOD TIMES, SANTA CRUZ

"The tremendous energy that Tempest inspires you to expend is staggering... one of the best live shows I've seen in years."
